Infinity Adds Strength with Two Executive Hires

Two new directors will position the company as a force in its sector.

ROCKVILLE, MD—March 10, 2022--Infinity IPS, a full-service Mortgage Due Diligence, Pre/Post Close QC, Tax/Title and support services firm, has hired Kevin Jenks to serve as Director, Whole Loan Trading & Due Diligence Sales, and Peter Gilbert to serve as Director, Due Diligence.

“Kevin and Peter bring decades of experience in evaluating portfolios and helping lenders maximize their loan sales programs,” said Chandresh Mehta, Infinity IPS Chief Executive Officer. “Our whole loan trading business is going to grow significantly in 2022, and this is just the first step we’re taking to grow our bench strength and expand our staff.”

Jenks has more than 20 years of Capital Markets experience as an institutional investment manager. He most recently served as Portfolio Strategist and Lead Consultant for KRJ Capital Advisors LLC. Prior to that he was a trader and Manager of Structured Products for Morgan Joseph Tri-Artisan, LLC. Jenks also served as Senior Portfolio Manager and Head of Structured Products for Apeirogon Capital LLC and Senior Fixed Income Portfolio Manager and Head of Structured Products for HBK Investments.

Gilbert most recently served as Chief Credit & Risk Officer for CMG Financial, a position he has held since 2014. Prior to that, he was Chief Credit Officer with Residential Finance Corporation and before that Chief Credit Officer with New Penn Financial. He also served as Chief Operations Officer for Preferred Trust Home Loans and Divisional Senior Vice President for Bank of America.

Infinity IPS is still searching for key executives to help manage the company’s growth. Interested parties should visit the company online.
